I Wrote A Lovesong

With the hair of a peaceful angel
And eyes a skylight blue
Shining through so bright
With the voice of a whispering wind
And lips of strawberry wine
She turns on her love light

It s all in my lovesong
A part of my lovesong
And I sing it just for you

To all the minutes of a silent sunrise
To all the moments in a passing hour
Changing my life so fast
To the beauty of a growing flower
To the plan in our paradise
I always sing the song of my life

It s all in my lovesong
A part of my lovesong
And I sing it just for you

To all the people with minds of hate
Lost their hope and lost their faith
They suffer all alone in the night
To all the kids a lullaby
To all my friends in Amsterdam
That makes me feel all right

You´re all in my lovesong
A part of my lovesong
And I sing it just for you

When I write the simple tune
It s the last day in the month of June
And I write it just for you

It s all in my lovesong
A part of my lovesong
And I sing it just for you

You´re all in my lovesong
A love, lovesong
And I wrote just for you

You re all in my lovesong
A part of my lovesong
Love, love, lovesong
