Japanese Winter

The mountains were dressed in white
The days, lonely, were turning to night
It was a Japanese winter

The snow was falling on my shoulder
I grow wise and I grow older
It was a Japanese winter

In silence they had to die
From the nightmare in the sky
It was a Japanese winter

The bomb was falling on Hiroshima
Did we grow wise, did we grow older ?
It was a Japanese winter
